Cowichan Tribes to Conduct Blanket Ceremony

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 8, 2017

Duncan, BC

Cowichan Tribes Chief and Council would like to inform our members that we have been working daily with the School District to formulate a plan towards combating racism in the community. On Wednesday, December 13, 2017 at 9:00 am, Cowichan Tribes will be conducting a blanketing ceremony at the Cowichan Secondary gymnasium on the students who were involved in the incident on Monday December 4, 2017.

This blanket ceremony will be the first step to bring healing to this situation. It is important to remember that our youth are our future, and we must bring with us forgiveness and healing to move forward.
